Mrs. L. C. Crenshaw and Mrs. J. W. Reed gave a delightful "At Home" to their charming visitor, Miss Louise Irby, of Memphis, at their elegant home on Saluda street on Wednesday night. A large number of guests were invited and the evening was one of pleasure and enjoyment. The house had been appropriately decorated and the Japanese lanterns hanging around the veranda added a splendor to the evening. The time flew all too quickly and each guest voiced the evening an occasion of much pleasure.

Looking for a Location.

A party of northern capitalists are looking for a location in the South, with a view, presumably, for a location for a cotton mill. The Commercial Club has taken the matter up and at an early date the publicity committee of the club will meet and address a letter to the gentlemen in question telling of the advantages of Chester and inviting the gentlemen to make a visit here and look over the city. It is understood that this party are men of means who are looking for a place where they will have plenty of electric power and railroad facilities and it is believed that this gives Chester a fine chance to locate them.

Col. L. T. Nichols, who is always on the watch for a chance of helping his city, first got into touch with the gentlemen and laid the matter before the Commercial Club. Something good might come of this inquiry.

It is hoped that every veteran in the country will be able to attend the coming State reunion in Chester. A well-known Confederate remarked a day or two ago that he had never attended a reunion of his comrades nor met any of his old comrades who are not; all of whom ought to make it convenient to go to the Chester meeting, for a pleasant time is assured them. The Chester people are proverbial for their lavish hospitality and they are making elaborate preparations for the entertainment of the old soldiers. Chester is only 28 miles from Lancaster and the reduced railroad fare will be within the reach of all—Lancaster News.
